Learn

Understanding Accessibility and DOJ
Compliance for State Government Services

DOJ Ruling under Title II of ADA

- “Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability; Accessibility of Web Information and Services of State and Local Government Entities.”
- Requires state and local governments to provide equal access to their programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities.
- Applies to all web content and mobile applications.
- Establishes WCAG 2.1 AA as technical standard.
- Provides specific timeline and requirements for ADA compliance.

DOJ Rule Significance for NC

- Meeting the fundamental needs of all individuals.
  - There are about 10.8 million people live in North Carolinians population in 2024
  - Approximately 13.5% of North Carolinians have disabilities, translating to over 1.4 million people who may face digital barriers in daily online interactions.
  - Around 18% of the state's population is aged 65 or older, a group that frequently encounters accessibility and digital literacy challenges.
  - Accelerated adoption of digital services significantly impacted employment opportunities for people with disabilities – diverse workforce.

2024 NCDIT Efforts Overview

- A11Y CoP established in January 2024
- “State of North Carolina Digital Accessibility and Usability Standard” introduced in April 2024.
  - Following WCAG 2.1 (Level AA) standards as the benchmark.
- Web Quality Assurance & Accessibility Monitoring Service established for all state agencies.
- Digital Accessibility Planning – December 2024.
  - Digital Accessibility Checklist – December 2024.
- Creating Accessible Content Trainings.
  - Writing for Web – January 2025

Benefits of Accessibility Beyond Compliance

- Improved User Experience for All Users.
- Opportunities for Wider Audience.
- Improved SEO and Search Rankings.
- Fostering Innovation.

Responsibilities for State Agencies

Task 1 - Raise Awareness and Educate

- Educate on DOJ ruling:
  - We Are NC Gov event
  - DOJ Deep Dive presentations
  - Digital Accessibility corner on NCDIT site – December 2024.
- Raise Awareness among Stakeholders
  - The proposed rule is expected to have a significant impact on government agencies, requiring updates to websites, apps, and digital content to meet accessibility standards.
- Raise Awareness among Agency Staff
  - <https://nc.gov/digital-accessibility>

Task 2 - Create Baseline Inventory

- Audit agency website and mobile apps
  - Digital Accessibility Checklist – December 2024
  - Request additional site crawls
- Utilize Web Quality Assurance & Accessibility Monitoring service
- Utilize Google Analytics data and Looker Studio Reports

Think

Assessing Current Website Accessibility and
Planning toward Compliance

Task 3 - Establish a Framework

- Form a Core team
- Review Roles and Responsibilities
- Review compliance Audits
- Identify Training needs

Task 4 - Develop an Accessibility Roadmap

- Develop a Compliance Strategy
- Outline a phased approach:
  - Immediate – Current website and apps.
  - Short-term – Upcoming procurement.
  - Long-term – New development.
- Prioritize high-impact areas first, based on Audit findings.
- Prioritize most critical web content (forms, navigation, images).

Task 5 - Allocate Resources

- Stakeholders Involvement!
- Importance of cross-functional Collaboration (design, dev, content, legal teams)
- Assess the knowledge gaps across teams and implement targeted Training programs.
- Plan for necessary Budget Allocation in each phase to cover tools, training, and audits.
- Establish a Feedback Loop with users with disabilities for real-world testing.

Do

Implementing Accessibility Improvements

Task 6 – Implementation and Remediation

- Implement steps outlined during Planning to address accessibility issues.
- Conduct regular progress reviews and adjust Roadmap strategies as needed.

Task 7 - Training and Resources

- Design and deliver engaging training programs for staff to deepen their understanding and application of accessibility principles, ensuring compliance.
- Share resources for continuous learning and reference (WCAG guides, DOJ resources).

Task 8 - Testing and Iteration

- Set regular accessibility compliance testing schedule and incorporate feedback.
- Track improvements over time to ensure sustained compliance.
- Accessibility is a commitment to providing equitable access to state services.

Just Do It!

- Start small and build on progress!
- Use A11Y CoP resources.
- Look for A11Y Corner on DIT website in December 2024.
- Reach out for support!

Identified Issues

- Acquia Optimize – baseline:
  - 15 verified level A issues
  - 10 verified level AA issues
- These issues span more than 8,000 HTML pages
- Editoria11y:
  - Started with 5,671 issues
  - Resolved 200 issues so far
- Manual Checks:
  - Uploaded documents
  - Closed captions of embedded videos
  - Breadcrumb trails
  - Menu links
  - Duplicate files in the media library
  - Keyboard accessibility

Project Priorities

- Ensure all content is accessible:
  - Review old content for relevance and either remove or remediate
  - Remediate relevant content
  - Create a process for ensuring new content is accessible before publishing
- Improve the user experience:
  - Create true landing pages for key tax topics
  - Consolidate related content to reduce clicks
  - Address menu structure and breadcrumbs
  - Remove duplicated content
- Develop editorial calendar to review all content annually

Process

- Obtain leadership support
  - Used Acquia Optimize dashboard and Editoria11y reports to identify the scope of this project and emphasize the need
- Identify core team of web editors to lead this project for their divisions
- Provide master list of all content per division using site crawl
- Develop mock-ups of planned page improvements
- Create customized instructions for document accessibility

Progress Highlights

---

- 20 web editors assigned to this project
  - 13 are actively working on this project
  - Others will begin in January
- 300 pages and documents have already been removed from the site
- Over 800 pages and documents have been approved for removal
- Completed usability testing with DIT to obtain taxpayer insights to guide changes
- Major changes completed:
  - New home page layout
  - New Collections landing page
  - New Sales & Use landing page
  - New financial report formatting

Home Page Layout Change

Highlights:

- Removed carousel images
- Prioritized search block on the home page
- This change has led to a reduction in user feedback form submissions requesting help – only 1 email in the last 3 months since we upgraded our home page
